

What to expect from the Tri-Regional Blind-Low Vision Program (BLV)

Family Support Worker (FSW)

A FSW is a social worker who supports families as needed with accessing additional resources, information, and/or referrals to other programs/agencies. Families will be asked for consent to involve FSW when they are referred to the BLV program.